11.1.2

- 11.2 The Vouchers, which will cover all publication charges including submission charges, shall expire after the period stated and cannot be used in subsequent periods.
- 11.3 Eligible Authors may redeem Vouchers for publication of the Eligible Content in any Emerald hybrid or Gold Open Access journal listed in Schedule 3 of this Agreement.
- 11.4 The parties agree that the ability for Eligible Authors to redeem Vouchers in any future Emerald hybrid or Gold Open Access Journal procured or otherwise made available by the Publisher from time to time shall be subject to the Publisher's sole discretion and shall be determined by the Publisher on a case-by-case basis.
- 11.5 The Publisher shall inform Eligible Authors about the availability of Vouchers following article acceptance and will allocate to Eligible Content on a first come first served basis.
- 11.6 A condition of redemption is that the Eligible Authors must agree that, and grant all necessary rights to enable, the Eligible Content to be published on a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International (CC BY 4.0) licence. For avoidance of doubt, the Eligible Author (and co-authors) will remain the copyright holders when using a Voucher.
- 11.7 The Publisher will identify Eligible Authors following acceptance of Eligible Content for publication using industry standard methods of identifying affiliation, including Ringgold ID and will conduct manual checks quarterly and report on this basis. The Parties acknowledge and agree that nothing in this Agreement, in particular but not limited to the definition or identification of an Eligible Author, affects how the affiliation of the author or Eligible Author is stated in the published article, which will be determined by the Publisher's policy from time to time.

11.8 If the Publisher allocates a Voucher to Eligible Content that was not authored by an Eligible Author, it will add a Voucher to the remaining balance following notification from the Consortium Member. For the avoidance of doubt, the Eligible Content will remain published on the open access licence that was applied at publication.

11.9 During the term, if

11.9.1 an Eligible Author does not appropriately identify themselves and then publishes an article on a subscription basis, the Publisher shall convert the article so that it is published open access with a CC BY 4.0 license pursuant to this clause if an Eligible Author consents to this and there is a Voucher available; and

11.9.2 Emerald fails to identify authors as Eligible Authors despite the author correctly providing the identification parameters and then publishes their article on a subscription basis, the Publisher shall be responsible to revert the article so that it is published open access with a CC BY 4.0 license pursuant to this clause if requested by the Eligible Author and the author is in fact an Eligible Author. In such case, a Voucher will be deducted from the total number of Vouchers.

11.9.3 Eligible Authors who have paid their own APC for an Eligible Article have the right to get their money back for articles published after January 1, 2025. For avoidance of doubt, if Eligible Author has rejected the offered voucher, this right does not apply. All refunds must be requested no later than 90 days after publication of the article.

11.10 The Parties agree that Vouchers shall be applied retrospectively and therefore the Eligible Content of an Eligible Author that was published prior to the date that this Agreement was entered into but within a period that Vouchers are available under this Agreement, will be allocated a Voucher and published on Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International (CC BY 4.0) licence subject to the Eligible Author's approval. The Publisher will have no obligation to refund any article processing charges already received prior to the date this Agreement was entered into.

11.11 The Publisher will make available to the Licensee information about Eligible Content from Eligible Authors for the period 1 January 2025 – 31 December 2026. The information shall be readily available on the Publisher's system and shall include:

The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the continuation in force of the remainder of this Agreement.

12.8 WAIVER
